

Equipped with a split-point tip that helps to increase speed and starts on contact, DEWALT Titanium Nitride Coating Step Drill bit features an innovative double-spiral flute design for long life and outstanding chip removal. Laser-engraved numbers helps to increase step visibility. Optimized for impact drivers. Works with rotary drills.

Add to Wishlist

Features

Titanium Nitride Coating dual flute spiral design provides longer life and better chip removal

Split point tip increases speed

Laser engraved numbers increases step visibility

1/4 in. hex shank

Optimized for impact driver and drill usage

Applications

Electrical - drilling into cans, panels, junction boxes

Mechanical - enlarging holes in strut

HVAC - enlarging holes in duct

Curtain wall / glaziers - shackles for curtain wall

Carpenters - enlarging door hardware