

This special wire pulling lubricant is safe to use with all cable types and is stable in high temperature situations (remains usable from 30 degree F to 190 degree F or -1 degree C to 88 degree C). This lubricant also will not harden in conduit. The creamy texture of this lubricant will apply easily and uniformly. It also will no dry out and is environmentally safe-non-toxic, non-flammable, and non-corrosive.